HER FRIEND THEN

Commits Double Crime.

VICTIM SLAIN IN SLEEP.

Nomen Were Partners in Conducting Fashionable Boston School for Girls.

BOSTON, March 11.—Miss Sarah hamberlain Weed and Miss Elizabeth dailey Hardee, each thirty-five years d. who conducted a fashionable boardng school for young ladies at No. 107 sudubon Road, in one of Boston's most clusive sections, were found early toy shot to death in Miss Hardee's room

The women lay in bed, Miss Hardee rain, while Miss Weed had been shot brough the right temple. A revolver tith two chambers empty lay on Miss Weed's breast, which fact, the police ay, shows conclusively that Miss Weed not and killed Miss Hardee and then mmitted suicide.

This theory is also borne out by the act that Miss Weed, who had been ontinued in a sanitarium in Newton scaped from that institution last night nd made her way to the school. She peared to be badly deranged menally, acting in a most peculiar maner and occasionally indulging in in-oherent remarks. A fruitless attempt vas made to communicate with the au-norities of the sanitarium and at length fiss Hardee succeeded in getting Miss Weed to go to bed in her room, Miss lardee retiring with her.

The double tragedy shocked residents of the fashionable neighborhood in hich the school is located and greatly ffected the students of the school, who tre the daughters of wealthy parents in earlous parts of the country.

Miss Weed was from Philadelphia. where she lived on Chestnut Hill, and Miss Hardee from East Savannah, Ga., her home address being No. 214 Gwinneth street. The women had been intimate friends since their graduation from Wellesley College, Miss Hardee receiving her diploma in 1894, while Miss Weed received hers a year later. Miss Hardee was an instructor in mathematics at Wellesiey in 1899 and 1300, and since that time had been teaching in Vermont. Miss Weed haalso been teaching in various sections

Last summer the two women decided to open a boarding school for girls on Auduson Read, in the Fenway. On Jot. I the day upon which the Laurens sthool, as they called it, was opened. Miss Weed broke down as a result or overwork and was laken to a senity. Miss weed broke down as a result or overwork and was taken to a sanitarium in West Newton, where she had since been under treatment for nervous fostration. While at the sanitarium alles weed had been subject to severalizate of melancholia.

Lust night she escaped from the sanitarium and made her way to the Lauriens School. Miss Hardee volunteered to care for her during the night and midding her return to the hospital.

An attempt was made to communicate.

An attempt was made to communicate with the authorities of the sanitarium, but the teachers at the school were unable to conect with the physicians. Miss Weed behaved in a peculiar manner, according to the teachers, wandering amlessly about the school building and occasionally making some strange or incoherent remark.

At leastly Miss Hardes possessed Miss. At length Miss Hardse persuaded Miss ed to rettre, and the demented won-followed her to her own chamber on An followed her to her own chamber on the third noor of the school.

Both women were awakened by Mrs. Page, the matron of the school, about 6 A. M., and notified that they must get up if they were to catch the 7.55 (rain, on which Miss Weed was to be taken back to West Newton.

Mrs. Page then left them, and a few moments later the shoeting occurred. Mrs. Page thinks the mention of returning to the sanitarion; must have exited and angered Miss Weed and prompted the shooting.

Medical Examiner Stedman, after vicwing the bodies, declared that Miss Weed had committed suicide after having killed Miss Hardee.

The tracedy caused a great sensation in the school. The pupils, about forty in number, are the daughters of wealthy exercise from all sections of the country.
